Dear Sir,

I am writing to you in reference to a man that has been staying at our hotel. By name W. Slade Vincent. He has incurred an account with us to the amount of £22-3-3 and he left here rather shabily getting into a passing car and going to Kalgoorlie also taking his belongings with him. He said he had 7/5 per day retired pay from the Imperial Gov. which I believe is correct. I have already obtained judgement for the amount through the local court and if you could inform when his money comes due and the amount of same I will esteem it a great favour this man has not played the game at all.

I remain
yours faithfully
J. MacLeod

P.S. I have a P.N. [Promissory Note] signed by him to the amount 16/17/9 which is not the full amount would you advise me what I could do with this.

J. MacL.
