The story of a house

Jo McGuire & Nigel Peacock

This is the first edition of the history of the house called The Laurels in Tharston and its inhabitants. It is a work in progress, and it is hoped that it will expand in time, especially with its earlier history.

OS First Edition Six-inch to the mile

1. From 2004 – The Current Inhabitants

Below is a small part of an email from Ben and Jo McGuire, the current residents:

Ben and I moved to The Laurels in 2004 after purchasing the house from Chris Gowing, so we've been here for several years. Looking into the history of the house has been something we've wanted to do for a while but time always seems to be in short supply.

They shared information they knew about The Laurels, including pine wood panelling in the house and of a photocard of an elderly gentleman.

2. Gowings to the McGuires

From the end of the 1920s, if not before, until the beginning of the 21st century The Laurels was owned by the Gowing family, the earliest being William and Hilda from the memory of a living village inhabitant. After their death, the occupancy continued with their children Michael, Christopher and his wife Liz until 1989. Sadly Michael died in 1989, Christopher and Liz Gowing separated and Christopher lived sometimes at The Laurels and sometimes elsewhere. He still owned it until 2003/4, when the premises were sold to the McGuire family.

3. 1897 - 1931

Please note that this section refers to the information in 15. Appendix 1: Electoral Register entries for 1897 to 1931.

With the lack of information on addresses withing Census Returns, one place to find out who was living where was to look at Electoral Registers which often listed property addresses. Just looking at the surnames corresponding to Register entries where it gives the address as The Laurels, it is possible to see who was living there at the time.

NB: with the information on the Burgess deaths being noted as at The Laurels, this surname has been included.

From the available Registers it can be seen that the inhabitants, with approximate years, are:

Burgess – from 1898 to 1907

Andrews – from 1909 to 1921

Neal – 1921 to 1925

Gowing – 1925 to 2004 on sale of property to the McGuire family

4. The National Census Returns

The only actual reference to The Laurels in any National Census is in 1911 when the occupants were the Andrews family as found in the Electoral Registers.

ANDREWS	William	Head	M	M	69	Farmer but unemployed	Holme Hale
ANDREWS	Phoebe	Wife	M 19 years	F	50	-	Clifton

1911 Census

The family were probably living at 23 Cromwell Road, Wimbledon, Kingston, Surrey in 1901.

1901 Census

The variety of places of birth of family members probably means they moved around quite a lot.

5. The 1939 Registration

The 1939 Registration has an entry for the Laurels. It shows the Gowing family in residence:

The image shows a handwritten registration record for the Laurels household. The entries are as follows:

Laurels	15	1	Gowing William S	M	22 Apr 96	M	Haulage Contractor	Observer Corp
		2	Gowing Hilda A	F	6 Apr 02	M	Unpaid Domestic Duties	Womens Voluntary Ser
		3	Gowing Michael W J	M	30 June 30	S	At School
This record is officially closed.
		5	Pidgeon Walter H	M	21 May 93	S	Lorry Mate

1939 Registration

Gowing William S	M	b. 26 Apr 1896	M	haulage contractor	Observer Corps
Gowing Hilda A	F	b. 6 Apr 1902	M	unpaid domestic duties	Womans Voluntary Service
Gowing Michael W J	M	b. 30 Jun 1930	S	at school
Officially closed record
Pidgeon Walter H	M	b. 21 May 1893	S	lorry mate

William Squire Gowing married Hilda Alice Perfitt in Great Moulton Parish Church on 10th November, 1925 following Banns; both were single, their fathers were farmers and at the time living in Great Moulton. Both William and Hilda had wartime roles shown on the Registration.

The officially closed record is most likely to have been Christopher John Gowing, supported by local knowledge and the information from section 2.

The Walter Pidgeon living with the Gowings was possibly working for William. His Occ. as lorry mate would complement William's of haulage contractor and he also had other family involved in the haulage/carting business.

The Gowings were quite a well-known local family and are referred to in sections 8 and 9.

6. The Andrews Family

The sons Cambridge, Frank and Norman all fought in the Great War and are on the Roll of Honour in Tharston St. Mary's Church – summaries from the Roll of Honour website are:

“SHORTHAND. – The following pupils of Holmes’ Shorthand School, St. Giles Chambers, Norwich, have just been successful in gaining Messrs. Pitmans’ certificates: Theory, Mr. H. Nelson, Tunstead, near Norwich. Elementary, Master Cambridge Andrews, Tharston, near Norwich.”

7. A Recommendation

The Andrews’ (of The Laurels, Tharston) recommendation of Cuticura soap appeared nationally in newspapers, from Scotland (17 December 1907 - Dundee Courier) to the South Coast (20 March 1909 - Hastings and St Leonards Observer - Hastings, Sussex). Quite an advertising spread!

USED CUTICURA REMEDIES WITH PERFECT SUCCESS

"I have used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment with most perfect success. Twelve years ago I used them as a complete cure for ringworm, after having had a medical man in attendance and recently, my little son, Norman, had a very nasty place on his thigh. We did not know how it was caused but I had medical treatment in N— for it. But as time went on it got larger and more painful. Remembering how I had used Cuticura for ringworm, I tried Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment for my boy and they quite cured his leg. After that a similar place came on his arm which I am still treating, but it is almost unnecessary, as it has nearly gone and the child is quite well. I shall always have pleasure in recommending Cuticura Soap and Ointment for any disease of the skin whenever I see an opportunity. Mrs. Phoebe Andrews, The Laurels, Tharston, Long Stratton, Norfolk, Oct. 9, 1906, and Jan. 15, 1907."

1901 Census

The address shown on the Census was just The Street, but that was close by The Laurels – if we accept that the newspaper reports are correct then the 1901 Census above most probably relates to The Laurels.

9. A Naughty Boy

Diss Express 14 January 1938 details court proceedings following William Squire Gowing of The Laurels as a contractor illegally moving pigs out of an infected area during a foot and mouth outbreak. Later articles gave a verdict of guilty.

Movement of Pigs

Charles John Ohsten, a farmer, of North Green Farm, Pulham St. Mary the Virgin, was accused of causing three boar pigs to be moved out of an infected foot and mouth restricted area on November 23rd at Pulham St. Mary and William Squire Gowing, The Laurels, Tharston, a contractor, was accused of moving animals out of an infected area on November 23rd at Pulham St. Mary.

Ohsten was fined £3 and costs and Gowing was fined £1 and costs.

Transcript from The Yarmouth Independent, 15 January 1938

10. Pine Panelling

Inside the Laurels there's a section of panelling that separates the smaller sitting-room from the kitchen at the back of the house, shown above, and the McGuires understood from Christopher Gowing that it had originally come from Tharston Hall. But did it come from Shotesham Hall?

The wood panelling is made of pine. It therefore must have been installed some time before the 1980's extension was built at the back of the house. The panelling was covered in several layers of paint which was stripped off in 2008.

11. The Photo Card

Soon after arriving at the Laurels the new occupants, the McGuires, found a photo card of an elderly gentleman. They cannot recall where the photo was actually found. It had to be somewhere fairly obvious as they could not remember it being found 'hidden' anywhere like under floorboards or in the attic. Having said that, on the day they moved into The Laurels, in August 2004, Christopher Gowing was still in the process of packing, along with the help of neighbours and friends. For several weeks afterwards the McGuire family boxed up the remainder of his things. If the photograph had been somewhere obvious then it would have been packed with Christopher's belongings.

Careful examination of the photo card gives the name of the subject as R. Fellows. The photo was taken in Norwich by a well-known and respected photographer John Sawyer. In the day, having your photo taken would have cost about £2 – so probably only for the well off. The same chair is seen in other portraits. Sawyer died in 1888 so photo was taken before then; the company then became Coe when taken over by the then company manager – it's still there and is known as Barrett & Coe.

The image is fascinating and, by the process of elimination of possibilities, research led to it likely being Robert from the Fellowes family living at Shotesham Hall.

The mystery was then to find a connection between the Laurels and Robert Fellowes, if there was one. He had several daughters so one might have married a resident of the Laurels or

12. A Document Bundle

In 2004 the McGuires were given an envelope containing several documents relating to the Laurels. They were:

- An indenture dated 28 Nov 1879: George Bailey sold The Laurels to William Butcher for £580.
- Abstract of Will dated 21 May 1884: William Butcher died and left The Laurels to his wife Jane Butcher.
- Conveyance of Freehold dated 10 June 1925: Thomas Everitt Neal sold The Laurels to Lee Bussey Esq and Alaan (?) Owen Bussey Esq of Tharston Hall for, possibly, £650.
- Document dated 17 Dec 1925: mortgage for £1925 between the bank and Margery Louisa Bussey.
- Conveyance dated 12 Nov 1932: Lloyds Bank Ltd to W S Gowing Esq Freehold hereditaments known as The Laurels, Tharston.
- Document: William Squire Gowing died 30 April 1953.
- Assent dated 26 Jan 1954 vesting The Laurels: William Squire Gowing deceased to Mrs Hilda Alice Gowing.
- Conveyance dated 16 Aug 1984: Mrs H A Gowing to Messrs C J and M W J Gowing sale of The Laurels for £25,000.
- Document: Hilda Alice Gowing died 07 Jan 1985.
- Documents: Christopher Gowing's brother Michael William James Gowing died 26 April 1989 intestate and his share of The Laurels went to Christopher Gowing on 29 March 1996.

The 1925 conveyance is really interesting as it gave a definite connection between The Laurels and Tharston Hall. It's not entirely clear where Thomas Everitt Neal fits into events but it's a fairly old document and the details are not easily read.

There's nothing in any of the documents that relate to the Andrews family, even though they are mentioned in the 1911 Census and also nothing about Thomas and Emily Burgess living there - could paperwork be missing from 1884 to 1925 between Jane Butcher inheriting from her husband, and Margery Louisa Bussey's mortgage. Also, The Laurels' land was larger in that period as it is thought a smaller chunk was sold off for building development; possibly the Gowing family still owns the meadow on the corner of The Street and Greenways Lane. It may be that Thomas and Emily Burgess lived in a smaller property within the curtilage of The Laurels.

13. The Shotesham Connection

Perhaps a connection has been staring us in the face for some time! We already had a possible connection between The Laurels and Shotesham Hall. If you look at the two deaths given in the newspaper clippings above, we find a Thomas Burgess who was 'for many years a farmer and agent on the Shotesham Estate', and his wife Emily who was 'late of the Church Farm, Shotesham St. Mary'. Perhaps Thomas and Elsie E (Elsie Emily) only lived a short time at the Laurels, or in a dwelling associated with it, as there is the 1901 Census reference to them living in The Street so definitely in Tharston.

An online family tree for Robert Fellowes was found. In that file it mentions a Thomas Burgess. The details are really somewhat confusing, but they are in the same tree – so there may have been a family connection!

14. Comments for further research:

- Perhaps the panelling in The Laurels came from the Shotesham Estate/Hall as Thomas Burgess would have had some access there, or the sale of The Laurels to the Busseys of Tharston Hall would give a possibility of using materials from The Hall in The Laurels;
- The date the panelling was installed would help with the above;
- What was the actual connection between Thomas Burgess and the Fellowes' family; and
- Use electoral registers to find possible owners of The Laurels.
